

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

REPORT is an open-access undergraduate journal based in the Department of History and War Studies at the United States Military Academy. The journal is published annually by The West Point Press and edited by a team of undergraduate students and faculty advisors. The journal provides a platform to showcase the historical scholarship produced by undergraduate authors. The journal accepts and encourages submissions from undergraduate students at West Point, other service academies, colleges, and universities. Submissions must be related to the field of history (broadly defined).

For more information and to see past volumes, scan the QR code below to see our Report: West Point Undergraduate Historical Review website!

REPORT

WEST POINT
PRESS