

CALL FOR PAPERS!

The editors of the United States Military Academy's undergraduate journal, REPORT, invite all undergraduate students and recent graduates to submit articles for Volume 16, scheduled to be published in May 2026! Papers examining all topics and fields of history will be considered for publication.

Deadlines: Authors must submit papers by January 5th, 2026. There will only be one round of review and authors will be notified of the editors' decisions by January 16th, 2026. Submit papers to report.history@westpoint.edu.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

1. Authors do not need to have attended or graduated from West Point.
2. Authors must be actively enrolled undergraduate students or recent graduates who received undergraduate degrees within the last 12 months.
3. Submissions must have been written during the author's undergraduate studies.
4. Authors may only submit one paper for consideration per publication cycle.
5. Papers based on original research are the strongest submissions.
6. Article submissions should not be under consideration with other publishers or have been previously published.
7. Submissions must be in Microsoft Word (not Adobe PDF) format with Chicago-style footnotes.
8. Authors wishing to include images with their articles must obtain and provide proof of copyright permission prior to submission.
9. The recommended word count is 2,500-6,000 words, but the editors welcome submissions of any length.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

REPORT is an open-access undergraduate journal based in the Department of History at the United States Military Academy. The journal is published annually by The West Point Press and edited by a team of undergraduate students and faculty advisors. The journal provides a platform to showcase the historical scholarship produced by undergraduate authors. The journal accepts and encourages submissions from undergraduate students at West Point, other service academies, colleges, and universities. Submissions must be related to the field of history (broadly defined).
